Lessons for Us To Learn

PSALM 27:7-14

In our Christian life, one of the many lessons to learn is patience. When we have a problem, we want an immediate solution, or answer. But that's not always God's will for us, He wants us to trust Him and leave the timing in His hands.

We are to have strong and courageous attitudes when we wait upon the Lord.

In our culture, people are quick to act because they're afraid of missing out on something; it takes courage to go against this trend and be still while the world rushes by. Even believers who have bought into that attitude of impatience, not waiting on God's timing move on the their impatience and ask God to bless it.

Are we asking the Lord for guidance or provision but hear only His silence?

Jesus tells us in Matthew 6:33 an answer to challenging issues in life.

Heavy Burdens to Bear

Anger, resentment, and bitterness are heavy burdens to be borne. Such qualities cause you to be miserable and to miss the joys of life. Sadly these negative qualities could easily cost a person their soul! An understanding of harm done by these negative qualities helps us appreciate what God said in Romans 12:17-21. "Repay no one evil for evil. Have regard for good things in the sight of all men. If it is possible, as much as depends on you, live peaceably with all men. Beloved, do not avenge yourselves, but rather give place to wrath; for it is written, "Vengeance is Mine, I will repay," says the Lord. Therefore "If your enemy is hungry, feed him; If he is thirsty, give him a drink; For in so doing you will heap coals of fire on his head." Do not be overcome by evil, but overcome evil with good." Peter wrote on this same theme, "Not returning evil for evil or reviling for reviling, but on the contrary blessing, knowing that you were called to this, that you may inherit a blessing" (1 Peter 3:9).

There are times when we may feel that we have been terribly hurt and disappointed by another person. But no matter what evil others have done to us, we must remember what the apostle Paul wrote in 1 Thessalonians 5:15. "See that no one renders evil for evil to anyone, but always pursue what is good both for yourselves and for all" (1 Thessalonians 5:15).

Let's go to Heaven together! I love you!

Door

January 16, 2022

Weekends & holidays are the prime times for advertisers to stuff flyers into newspapers, adding to what I call the "pulp padding". You can't escape a peek at the ones for home suppliers. I like the nice color photos of doors of all types. Some of these beauties can stop a vacation to Disney World. If one is installed for your front door I am sure you will fall down & worship its varnished wood & stained floral glass panels. Fingerprints will never mar its glossy sheen & you will hang a sign on its brilliant brass knob requesting everyone to come to the humble back door. A door of this quality could even go as a birth day gift, think about it!

The word door may have entered our language through an English family name, Dore, meaning the entrance to a narrow valley. We use the word every day: Close the door when you leave. She forgot to lock her car door. They live two doors up the street from us. His office is the third door down the hall on the left. A day cannot go by without the use of the word "door."

The Egyptians put into their tombs a false door. It was to serve as an imaginary passage for the deceased between the world of the living & the world of the dead. Lavish inscriptions were on the false door referring to the countless offerings the deceased is about to receive. Sometimes a life-sized statue of the deceased placed before the door as if it had just stepped out of it.

We can't live without them. They keep the cold drafts of winter outside & the cool air inside during the hot sultry days of summers, & keep the swarms of hostile insects outside. Properly fitted, a door can be locked for security purposes. Doors keep us from falling out of our cars. Closed doors can stop the spread of a home fire. Doors give us privacy & absorb outside traffic & neighborhood noises. A door can have many names: trap, stable, barn, French, garden, pet, revolving & automatic door. Whatever its name, a door serves a very distinct & useful function.

James Rowe (1865-1933) came to America from England in 1889. He settled in Albany, New York. He worked for the railroads & later for music publishers in Tennessee & Texas . He wrote the words for I WAS SINKING DEEP IN SIN & JUST OUTSIDE THE DOOR 1912 O weary soul the gate is near, in sin why still abide? Both peace & rest are waiting here & You are just outside. Just outside the door, just outside the door, Behold it stands ajar! Just outside the door, just outside the door, So near & yet so far!

An old saying in the south "Katie bar the door" meant "something unstoppable is coming!" & "Katie bar the kitchen door" suggested you had better watch out!

(May God bless you & all your loved ones!)
